APPLICANT STATEMENT

- Artie Gould will always be remembered as an individual who, regardless of the job at hand would always put forth his best efforts. His dedication to the job at hand and his tenacity was an inspiration long after his health issues forced his retirement. Artie suffered from Lou Gehrig's Disease which slowly diminished his physical abilities to perform his job but never stopped him from performing at the highest level he could achieve. After his health forced him to retire Artie would return on a regular basis to B&G to visit friends, drop off tomatoes from his garden but most importantly to make sure the person that assumed his responsibilities was maintaining the high level of achievement he had set. His work ethic has left a lasting impression on the work culture of this business and has become an integral part of our success.
- In an essay of approximately 500 words:
 Please describe a situation in which your hard work and persistence has left a positive impact on others around you.
 Please be specific about the task and situation and how you were successful at accomplishing your goals.
 Please describe in your essay how you plan in the future to utilize your work ethic and leadership abilities to achieve your goals and aspirations.

Please type your statement and attach to this document.
